

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
CONTRIBUTORY RETIREMENT APPEAL BOARD

---

PATRICIA FLYNN

Petitioner

v.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT ADMINISTRATION COMMISSION

Respondent

No. CR-04-722

---

DECISION

---

This is an appeal of Patricia Flynn from the determination of the Respondent, the Public Employee Retirement Administration Commission, refusing to abide by the lump sum agreement entered into by Ms. Flynn and the Town of Weymouth. The matter was heard by Division of Administrative Law Appeals and Exhibits 1 – 7 were entered as part of the record. The Petitioner testified in her own behalf. A Decision was entered by DALA on November 8, 2005 and the Petitioner appealed to this Board pursuant to § 16(4).

The DECISION of the Administrative Magistrate is incorporated herein by reference and her Findings of Fact 1- 23 are adopted by this Board as our own. We affirm the Magistrate's Conclusion and Order for the reasons set forth in her Decision.

SO ORDERED.

CONTRIBUTORY RETIREMENT APPEAL BOARD

Did Not Participate

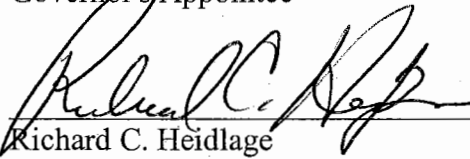

Joseph I. Martin

Public Employee Retirement Administration Commission
Appointee

David Railsback

Governor's Appointee

Richard C. Heidlage

Assistant Attorney General

Chairman

Attorney General's Appointee

Date:

7/5/06